

Eastern Illinois University Position Announcement for Wildlife Ecologist Department of Biological Sciences

The Department of Biological Sciences at Eastern Illinois University (www.eiu.edu/biology) is seeking a Wildlife Ecologist at the rank of Assistant Professor (tenure-track), beginning August 2023. Candidates must have a Ph.D. or equivalent degree; postdoctoral experience is preferred. Candidates with research focus on any area of Wildlife Ecology are encouraged to apply. The successful candidate will be expected to develop an active research program involving both undergraduate and graduate (Master's level) students. Teaching responsibilities include undergraduate courses in wildlife ecology, ornithology, mammalogy, and a graduate course in the candidate's area of expertise. Salary is commensurate with qualifications, and a competitive start-up package will be available.

Applicants must submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, statement of research interests (that highlights the involvement of students), and contact information for at least three professional references to Dr. Gordon Tucker, Chair of the Search Committee. Application materials must be submitted as separate files using Interfolio <http://apply.interfolio.com/114933>. Review of applications will begin on November 30, 2022. Questions about the search may be directed to Dr. Gordon Tucker, Chair of the Search Committee, at gctucker@eiu.edu.

The University and Community

Eastern Illinois University takes pride in creating a warm, welcome environment for all faculty, staff and students. Established in 1895, EIU boasts a rich, 125-year tradition of preparing students for their personal and professional goals. A traditional regional residential institution, EIU offers a superior education at a relatively low cost while consistently earning high rankings and distinctions for its affordability, academic program quality, career placement rates, campus safety, online degree options, student support, and sustainability initiatives. EIU focuses on individualized attention and superior student relationships, and has earned recognition as the highest-ranking independent public regional university in Illinois and a place among the Midwest's top public regional universities according to U.S. News and World Report. EIU hosts more than 175 student organizations on campus, and offers a variety of cultural events, NCAA Division I athletics, and active research opportunities for its students to enjoy and to thrive. EIU has become recognized for providing the resources of a large institution while creating the kinds of individual relationships that support student and alumni success.

Eastern Illinois University is located in Charleston, Illinois – a comfortable and safe east central town within a two-to three-hour drive of three major metropolitan areas -- Chicago, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.

Eastern Illinois University is an Affirmative Action/ Equal Opportunity Employer – minority/female/disability/veteran – committed to achieving a diverse community.