EIU Marketing & Communications Laravel Developer Position Announcement

Want to work with a great team, have a variety of work, and provide service to wonderful people? Do all of that while working on a college campus with amazing benefits! EIU Marketing & Communications is searching for a Laravel Developer to join our team and help us continue to provide top-notch solutions to faculty, staff, and students at Eastern Illinois University. We do great work, and we want you to be a part of it!

Our Ideal Candidate is a Laravel Developer with in-depth knowledge of MVC architecture and REST APIs. Understanding of Docker design and yaml files to produce efficient development and production environments. Experience with Github and CI/CD. In addition to these technical skills, our ideal candidate has the ability to scope out projects based on client requirements, great communication skills, a problem-solving mindset, and the desire to keep learning.

Responsibilities:

- Liaise with fellow backend and front-end developers.
- Design and implement web applications that use the Laravel framework.
- Implement server-side logic to process front inputs.
- Identify and Xx bugs that are found within code.
- Interact with SQL databases.
- Ensure all inputs going to a database have been parameterized.
- Ensure the appropriate security standards have been implemented.
- Ensure you've written unit test cases to verify code is performing as expected and to prevent possible security breaches.
- Create written documentation for the different components.

Requirements:

- Two years Laravel development experience.
- Additional requirements include two years of experience developing dynamic sites with PHP; two years of experience writing html/css; and two years of experience working with database systems (mysql or oracle or MS SQL server) in relation to web development.
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity and experience promoting inclusive excellence.

Applicant Portfolio:

We'd like to get to know you a bit better before your interview! We ask that you provide us with a link to an online portfolio. This could be a website you've built that showcases some of your past projects or shows some of your abilities through the website itself. The portfolio could include screenshots, code samples, screencasts, or even write-ups of project details and accomplishments.

Application Instructions

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until Friday, June 17, 2022. Applicants should submit the following a letter of application indicating how the candidate's background and credentials meet the position's responsibilities and qualifications; a current resume; a list of names, address, phone number, and email for three professional references; and a link to your portfolio via Interfolio <http://apply.interfolio.com/106768>. For questions regarding this search, please contact Nathan Atkinson, Search Committee Chair, at nratkinson2@eiu.edu.
