

Eastern Illinois University
Clinical Instructor, Communications Disorders & Sciences
Position Announcement

The Department of Communication Disorders and Sciences at Eastern Illinois University seeks applications for a full-time, 9-month, annually contracted faculty position at the rank of Instructor beginning August 16, 2021. Summer employment is possible. Duties include clinical supervision of graduate and undergraduate clinicians.

Qualifications:

Master's Degree in Speech-Language Pathology or Clinical Doctorate is required. ASHA certification and IL state licensure for clinical supervision is required. Illinois educational PEL in Speech Pathology is also preferred. Two years or more clinical experience treating pediatric speech-language disorders is required. Experience treating school-age children and experience with treating clients with autism is preferred. Supervision experience (internships, CFY, other) is preferred. Demonstrated commitment to diversity and promoting inclusive excellence is required.

Application Instructions:

Review of completed applications will begin June 28, 2021, and continue until the position is filled. A complete application includes a letter of application addressing strengths and experience relative to the qualifications and responsibilities of the position; a current resume; and the names and contact information of three professional references who can comment on relevant clinical experience.

Application materials should be addressed to Trina Becker, Chair, CDS Faculty Search Committee and submitted via Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/88794>.

If you have any questions regarding this search, please direct them to the Search Committee Chair at tmbecker@eiu.edu.

Start Date:

August 16, 2021

Eastern Illinois University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer - minority/female/disability/veteran -- committed to achieving a diverse community.