

Eastern Illinois University
Position Announcement
Non-Tenure Track Teaching Position in Physics

The Physics Department at Eastern Illinois University seeks qualified candidates for a full-time academic year teaching position starting January 4, 2024. This position comes with a benefits package and may be continued into future years. The qualified candidate must hold, at minimum, a Master's Degree in Physics or related field. A PhD is preferred. Demonstrated commitment to diversity and experience promoting inclusive excellence is required. This is a teaching position for lower and upper level undergraduate teaching in Physics depending on qualifications. A typical teaching load is three to four courses per semester. We seek a person with experience teaching lower and upper level undergraduate Physics courses.

Applicants should submit a letter of application, including a statement of teaching experience and philosophy, a vita, official undergraduate and graduate transcripts and names, phone numbers, and e-mail addresses of three references to <http://apply.interfolio.com/131049> (Interfolio). Review of applications begins October 6, and will continue until the position is filled.

Questions may be addressed to Dr. Steven Daniels, Chair, Physics Department, at swdaniels@eiu.edu.

The University & Community: Eastern Illinois University takes pride in creating a warm, welcoming environment for all faculty, staff and students. Established in 1895, EIU boasts a rich tradition of preparing students for their personal and professional goals. A traditional regional residential institution, EIU offers a superior education at a relatively low cost while consistently earning high rankings and distinctions for its affordability, academic program quality, career placement rates, campus safety, online degree options, student support, and sustainability initiatives. EIU focuses on individualized attention and superior student relationships, and has earned recognition as the highest-ranking independent public regional university in Illinois and a place among the Midwest's top public regional universities according to U.S. News and World Report. EIU hosts more than 175 student organizations on campus, and offers a variety of cultural events, NCAA Division I athletics, and active research opportunities for its students to enjoy and to thrive. EIU has become recognized for providing the resources of a large institution while creating the kinds of individual relationships that support student and alumni success.

Eastern Illinois University is located in Charleston, Illinois – a comfortable and safe east central town within a two-to three-hour drive of three major metropolitan areas -- Chicago, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.

Diversity and Inclusion: Eastern Illinois University is committed to fostering a learning community where all members feel welcomed and valued. The university provides equality of opportunity in all areas of campus life and we strive to recognize and appreciate the unique value of our students, faculty, and staff. Every member of campus has the right to learn and work in an environment free of discrimination and harassment, and beyond that, our goal is for all members of our community to develop a strong sense of belonging to Eastern Illinois University.

Eastern Illinois University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer - minority/female/disability/veteran - committed to achieving a diverse community.