

Eastern Illinois University
School of Technology Position Announcement
Tenure Track in Construction Management

The School of Technology at Eastern Illinois University invites applications for a tenure track Assistant Professor position starting in August 2022. A minimum of a doctoral degree in Construction Management or a closely-related field is required, with preference to applicants who have industrial or teaching experience.

The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching graduate core courses and support one or more of the undergraduate fields. A typical workload per semester will include 3-4 courses in classroom/laboratory. In addition, mentoring undergraduate and graduate students in technology related research and contributing to the ACCE accreditation process are expected. Commitment to diversity and inclusive excellence is required.

Eastern Illinois University (EIU) is a comprehensive state university in a community of 20,000 in east central Illinois. Enrollment at the university is approximately 7,000 and growing. As a primarily undergraduate teaching institution, EIU is dedicated to quality learning in small class settings. Eastern Illinois University takes pride in creating a warm, welcome environment for all faculty, staff and students. Established in 1895, EIU boasts a rich, 125-year tradition of preparing students for their personal and professional goals. A traditional regional residential institution, EIU offers a superior education at a relatively low cost while consistently earning high rankings and distinctions for its affordability, academic program quality, career placement rates, campus safety, online degree options, student support, and sustainability initiatives.

EIU focuses on individualized attention and superior student relationships, and has earned recognition as the highest-ranking independent public regional university in Illinois and a place among the Midwest's top public regional universities according to U.S. News and World Report. EIU hosts more than 175 student organizations on campus, and offers a variety of cultural events, NCAA Division I athletics, and active research opportunities for its students to enjoy and to thrive. EIU has become recognized for providing the resources of a large institution while creating the kinds of individual relationships that support student and alumni success.

The School of Technology has undergraduate programs in Computer and Information Technology, Organizational Leadership, Digital Media, Construction Management, and Engineering Technology and the Master of Science in Technology. This faculty will be appointed as a member in the School of Technology, which seeks a highly-motivated team player to assist the growth of these programs.

Review of applications will begin on November 10, 2021 and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants must submit a letter of application (cover letter), statement of teaching philosophy, curriculum vitae, undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and names of three references (with whom you have collaborated within last 5 years) with contact information to Interfolio <http://apply.interfolio.com/97281>.
