Director of Employee & Labor Relations

Description

Eastern Illinois University invites applications for the position of Director of Employee & Labor Relations. The Director reports to the University General Counsel and is primarily responsible for negotiations, interpretations, and administration of collective bargaining agreements. In support, the Director trains supervisors and managers on labor related issues, processes grievances, and provides assistance in conflict resolution. Additionally, the position provides guidance and assistance to the university community regarding activities affecting employee relations (including performance management), conducts investigations, administers CDL testing, and assists in responding to complaints and preparing for arbitrations and other hearings.

About EIU

Enrolling more than 8,600 students, Eastern Illinois University is a regional comprehensive institution offering a diverse array of undergraduate degree programs and more than 30 graduate degree programs, as well as ten post-baccalaureate certificate programs. Eastern has consistently been recognized by U.S. News & World Report as a top regional comprehensive residential campus in Illinois and prepares more undergraduates who go on to earn doctoral degrees than any other master's college/university in Illinois, according to a recent National Science Foundation survey. In addition to ranking first in the state, the NSF surveys rank EIU in the top 5 percent nationwide.

Eastern Illinois University takes pride in creating a warm, welcome environment for all faculty, staff and students. Established in 1895, EIU boasts a rich, 125-year tradition of preparing students for their personal and professional goals. EIU offers a superior education at a relatively low cost while consistently earning high rankings and distinctions for its affordability, academic program quality, career placement rates, campus safety, online degree options, student support, and sustainability initiatives.

Eastern Illinois University is located in Charleston, Illinois – a comfortable and safe east central town within a two-to three-hour drive of three major metropolitan areas -- Chicago, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.
