

Eastern Illinois University Theatre Generalist Position Announcement

EIU Department of Theatre seeks qualified applicants for a full time Instructor to teach a variety of undergraduate courses and possibly direct for the mainstage season. Successful applicants will demonstrate a history of scholarship and/or creative activity in areas related to theatre for social change as well as facility in teaching a diverse student body.

Qualifications include an MFA or PhD in Theatre, and experience directing both traditional and contemporary performance forms. A demonstrated commitment to diversity and experience with promoting inclusivity is required.

Applicants must submit a letter of application, statement of teaching philosophy, vitae/resume, and the names of three references. Applicants are invited to share a reel of directing work and/or student evaluations. Application materials must be submitted electronically to Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/75666>.

For questions regarding this search, please contact Anne Thibault, Screening Committee Chair, at athibault@eiu.edu.

Eastern Illinois University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer - minority/female/disability/veteran - committed to achieving a diverse community.