Electrical Engineering Program Position Announcement
9 Month, Non-Tenure Track in Electrical Engineering

The Electrical Engineering Program at Eastern Illinois University invites applications for a non-tenure track instructor position in Electrical Engineering starting in August 2023, subject to available funding. Electrical Engineering (EE) is a newly established program within the Physics Department in collaboration with the School of Technology. This faculty will be appointed as a member of the School of Technology, which seeks a highly motivated candidate to assist in the growth of the new EE program.

The successful candidate will be responsible for supervising and coordinating an internship program, developing and maintaining close contacts with industry, and teaching courses in Electrical Engineering and the School of Technology. A typical teaching load per semester will include teaching 2-4 courses in classroom/laboratory/internship with an expectation for summer internship supervision (compensated according to the Collective Bargaining Agreement). In addition, mentoring undergraduate students in engineering-related capstone projects, and contributing to the ABET accreditation process are expected. Commitment to diversity and inclusive excellence is required.

Qualifications

A minimum of a master's degree and full-time engineering work experience are required. Required credentials can be met in one of four ways:

- 1) B.S. and M.S. in Electrical (EE) or Computer Science & Electrical Engineering (CSEE)
- 2) B.S. in EE or CSEE and a related technical master's
- 3) B.S. in a related technical area and MSEE or MSCEE
- 4) M.S. in related area and a Professional Engineer's License

Application Instructions

Review of applications will begin on November 15, 2022 and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants must submit a letter of application (cover letter), statement of teaching philosophy, current resume/CV, undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and names of three references with contact information, to Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/115420>. For questions regarding this search, please contact Dr. Kelly Best, Screening Committee Chair, at kjbest@eiu.edu
